Driver Scorecard

Lowers Costs by Reducing Accidents

Speeding is a factor in over 30% of fatal crashes — fatal crashes can cost in excess of $1M and the average cost in a minor accident is $20K.

Reduces Fuel Usage and Costs

Save on fuel — fuel economy decreases by .5 MPG for every 5 MPH a truck drives over 55 MPH.

Burn less fuel by reducing idling — for every hour of idling, trucks consume on average a gallon of fuel and accounts for approximately 8% of total fuel use.

Easily Correct Driver Behaviors that are Costing You Money and Lost Productivity

Detailed reports and driver scorecards quickly and easily show where, when, and how long drivers have been speeding, idling, or visiting restricted locations.

No Additional Hardware to Purchase Means No Downtime Due to Hardware Installs or Maintenance

Keep your trucks on the road — No third party hardware to purchase or costly installations to coordinate.

Keeps Drivers, and their Trucks, Focused on Work Related Activities

Find out if trucks are being used when they shouldn't be for non-work activities.
